

Solar Power Generation Program

Coomabah State High School is committed to educating students on efficient energy solutions in today's energy conscious society.

Coomabah State High School is part of Education Queensland's Solar Schools program and below you can see up to date digital readouts of the school's solar power system.